TO HEAL MIND, BODY AND SPIRIT.

PROSPECTUS

INTRODUCTION

In today's world, there has been a great emphasis on the healing of the emotional part of the human body to facilitate the healing of the physical. There has to be a full balance, for health to be restored, as one without the other, will lead to more disease and immune deficiency.

The mind is the most powerful tool, we are only discovering its full potential, and tapping into the energies that allow the spiritual and the physical to interact one with the other to produce a wholeness of body, mind and spirit.

The training we offer is to teach and train therapists, to empower Patients through their own mind, allowing them to release the past, the obstacles in their lives and to live the life they were born to live. In the shamanic tradition, therapists will be trained in journey work, Counselling and helping patients , spiritually to integrate with their higher self and their guides.

The journey work consists of taking patients through powerful guided visualizations to heal the mind and the body.

Therapists, will be taught to open up and dissect the subconscious mind, to discover the fears and the obstacles that cause at times the Illnesses that are so prominent in today's world.

Sensitivity, counselling and understanding will form a major part of the training for the therapists to become totally intuitive to the patient's mind and their reactions to life.

The spiritual realm plays a big role in the journey work, as it gives us the intuition and the healing through the metaphysical energy of the Universe.

The therapists virtually open the door to the angelic forces to assist in the healing process.

Therapists will be able to offer their patients the empowerment and the mind tools they will need to lead a full, healthy and happy life.

Visualization and journey work is essential and is compatible to any other treatment that the patient is undergoing.

HISTORY

Daniela Leigh started her work 8 years ago, undergoing extensive training as a metaphysical healer, counselling and hypnotherapy with the Master Mind Institute of America. As she learnt about the different variations of journey work, meditations and visualizations, Daniela came to the realization that through the connection to the Angelic Realm and the healing of the subconscious, lay the most Powerful method of uplifting people's lives, not only on the mental, But on the physical as well.

Following reknown teachers such as Diana Cooper, Carolyin Myss, Louise Hay, and Dr. Brian Weiss, Daniela included her own research to the journey work that proved to have unsurpassing results with Her patients.

Daniela's techniques are unique and her clientele has amassed to such an extent, that it has prompted the introduction of these methods to other therapists.

Daniela is now offering this unique process through the Angel's Training School.

Tanja has been working with Daniela as an associate for the past four years, and underwent the same training. She has a large practice and is now very involved with the training as well.

Through our work and that of all the other therapises that follow us, We hope to ulift the human spirit and allow many people on this earth to enjoy a full and healthy life!
